THE ROCHE COURT EDUCATIONAL TRUST

ABOUT

We are a charity who works with teachers and young people to develop confidence and skills by looking, thinking and speaking about art. Our aim is to provide a greater understanding and enjoyment of the culture of our age. We encourage everyone to speak amongst themselves and in public about the visual world, raising their aspirations and increasing their knowledge.

The Roche Court Educational Trust (RCET) is based at the New Art Centre sculpture park and gallery. Our programme is led by experts and supported by artists who exhibit at Roche Court.

SCHOOL AND GROUP VISITS

We offer interactive tours of the Sculpture Park and current exhibitions for schools, colleges, universities and other interested groups. Designed to meet the specific needs and interests of individual groups they are appropriate for all ages and level of knowledge. All group visits must be booked in advance and a small charge is made per head.

FRIENDS AND BENEFACTORS OF THE ROCHE COURT EDUCATIONAL TRUST

Our Friends and Benefactors generously support the work of The Roche Court Educational Trust in its role as a unique educational resource within the South of England where students can experience contemporary and modern art first hand. They also contribute to the expansion of the existing programme to cover a wider range of schools and pupils. Friends receive invitations to all the New Art Centre Private Views, priority booking for all special artist events and regular education newsletters.

Annual Friend membership cost £50, Benefactor £250 and Event Benefactor £1000.
