

ARTiculation Discovery Day

Getting young people talking about the arts

Strawberry Hill House

Thurs 1 November, 10.00 - 4.00pm

FREE workshop for KS4 & KS5 students developing critical analysis, research and public speaking skills

This Discovery Day provides a once in a lifetime experience of seeing the house as Horace Walpole intended it to be seen as students explore the exhibition Walpole's Lost Treasures.

Students will:

- explore art works through personal observation, discussion and primary research
- be encouraged to think independently, analyse information, ask informed questions
- learn how to conquer nerves, physically prepare, and successfully deliver a presentation to large audiences
- meet with and interview art world professionals

At the end of the day each student will deliver their research and personal responses in short group presentations to the workshop leaders and their fellow student investigators.

The c150 treasures will include Henry VIII's jewel encrusted dagger, a marble Eagle from 1st century Rome, the Grinling Gibbons carved cravat now in the V&A, furniture by Andre-Charles Boulle and many important paintings.

ARTiculation supports the national Arts Award initiative for both Silver and Gold (gaining up to 16 UCAS points), the EPQ, the Duke of Edinburgh Award, and UCAS personal statements

To book places please complete and return the booking form.
